Association News.

The meetings yesterday were all very well attended and were enjoyed by all present. Two good meetings were held in the afternoon at the Association and three at night at the various churches, at which time the State work was ably presented.

The following class schedule is announced for tonight: "Christ Among Men" at 7:15. "Progressive Studies No. 1" at 8:15. Arithmetic class at 7:30 and penmanship class at 8:30. Shorthand class at 8:15.

Notice, Maccabees.

As important matters relative to the good of the order are to be discussed at the next meeting, Wednesday night at 7:30 o'clock, each and every member of the K. O. T. M. is earnestly requested to be present. Meet in Red Me's hall, over post office.

116-3L. F. E. PRICE, R. K.

Weather Bulletin.

For Palestine and vicinity: Probably rain tonight; Tuesday fair; decidedly colder with freezing tonight; cold wave; temperature will fall to 28 degrees Tuesday.

Town Helping.

The attention of the reader is called to an editorial under the title, "The Remedy," in this issue of The Herald, and we earnestly appeal to you, to your loyalty to Palestine, to read it and consider it.

Other suggestions on the line of Town Helping will follow. We hope to receive contributions to the suggestions of how to make Palestine a better town.

SOLDIER BOYS

Discharged From the Service and Going Home.

This morning a special train came in from the west, bearing thirty-five men who have been discharged from the service, and who had been stationed at Fort McIntosh, near Laredo. The regular train was held here nearly two hours to carry the boys on to their homes north. One or two cases of yellow fever having occurred in the fort, it was advised that all men whose terms of enlistment would soon expire be discharged and sent to their homes, and these thirty-five are among those discharged.

The boys were not permitted to leave their car until they reached Palestine, and taking advantage of the ten minutes' stop they laid in a good supply of beer and other refreshments, and went on their way rejoicing.

The Play.

The Holden Comedy Company closed its engagement here Saturday night.

"Gambler's Daughter" comes to the Temple Opera House on Wednesday evening. It is the latest melodrama from the skillful and talented pen of Owen Davis, the author of several other highly successful melodramas. The new piece is most elaborately staged. A company of the best players to be obtained comprises the cast, and the many exciting scenes and startling climaxes as the interesting plot develops are vividly portrayed.

The plot hinges on a dastardly conspiracy hatched against the heroine, who is wealthy in her own right, and whose father is the owner of an ultra-fashionable and exclusive Michigan avenue gambling palace, as well as being a prominent board of trade man. The part of the gambler's daughter is taken by the well known, clever and talented leading woman, Miss Louise Dunbar. In the cast are such foot-light favorites as Elsie Frazee, Virginia Clay, Isabelle Winlocke, Henry Pemberton, Geo. D. Hart, Leo Kendall, Carl Statzer, David Gibson, H. H. Frazee, Charles Stone, L. P. North, Richard White, Wm. Breyer, Grant Collins, and many others.

"Her Only Sin," the attraction at the Temple next Thursday evening, is Lincoln J. Carter's latest effort in the field of melodramatic success, and from the flattering press comments and public approval, bids fair to eclipse all of his previous record-breaking plays. There is much to be said about this play that is good and nothing too laudatory can be spoken of for its intrinsic value. With an exceptionally fine cast, we are led to believe this will be one of the season's best attractions. Julia Gray has the leading role.

Married.

Sunday evening, Nov. 15, 1903, at 7:30 o'clock, a pleasant company of friends assembled at the residence of Mrs. L. J. Lyman, on Main street, to witness the marriage of her daughter, Myrtle Aurata, to Mr. Eugene Castleberry Savell. Rev. J. C. Huntington of Dallas, assisted by Rev. E. P. Kuhl of this city, performed the ceremony in a very impressive manner. After hearty congratulations the happy couple left on the 8:15 train for Galveston and other points south.

Trades Council.

The regular meeting of the Palestine Trades and Labor Council will be held Tuesday night, and it is very important that all delegates be present. Respectfully,
O. PRARSON, Rec. Sec'y.
